

Investigation of Murder/Homicide Cases

A 05-days Course is conducted on Investigation of Murder/Homicide Cases which imparts training on F.I.R. drafting & Inquest (with practical); Anti-mortem & Post-mortem injuries; Various kinds of injuries including firearms, injury correlation & medico-legal aspects of injuries; Overview of Law & Procedure; Death due to Asphyxia, Burning, Poisoning; Types of death; Steps regarding identification of unidentified dead bodies; Cellular Communication; Importance of DNA Fingerprinting; Exam. of SOC & collection of forensic evidence; Defects in investigation & prosecuting of homicide cases; Method of detecting Deception, Polygraph Test, Narco-analysis, Brain-mapping, Recent Supreme Court Judgment etc. The trainees are taken for a visit to the IPGMER for practical demonstration of Post-Mortem exam. Case Studies are discussed and Training Films are shown on related topics.